

Nicolás Zambrano

Carrera 16 #164-37 • Bogotá D.C. • nzambranoab@unbosque.edu.co • 3502038440

Education

El Bosque University Undergraduate in Systems Engineering (Currently enrolled – 5th semester) Relevant Coursework: Programming II, Algorithmic Complexity, Databases 1	Bogotá D.C.
Servicio Nacional de Aprendizaje (SENA) Technical Degree in Computer Equipment Maintenance and Repair	Paz de Ariporo, Casanare (Graduated: December 8, 2023)
Sagrado Corazón Educational Institution High School Diploma	Paz de Ariporo, Casanare (Graduated: December 8, 2023)
Introduction to C++ (Online Course) Completed	November 30, 2024

Experience

Personal Programming Project (Remote)	Bogotá D.C.
C++ Practice Project Developed console-based applications to apply object-oriented programming and data structures - Implemented sorting algorithms and file-handling operations - Strengthened debugging skills using Visual Studio Code and Git	January 2024 – July 2024

Leadership & Activities

El Bosque University	Bogotá D.C.
Project Manager – Pizzatron 3000 Project - Led the final project for the Introduction to Programming course (Java) during the first semester of the degree. - Managed a team of 6 students to recreate the Pizzatron 3000 game from Club Penguin using objectoriented programming. - Applied agile methodologies, version control with Git, and basic UI design principles throughout development.	August 2024 – November 2024

Skills & Interests

Technical: Java (Intermediate - Advanced), Python (Basic), HTML/CSS (Intermediate), Git & GitHub (Intermediate), MySQL (Intermediate - Advanced), C++ (Intermediate), MongoDB (Basic)
Language: Spanish (Native), English (Intermediate – B2)
Laboratory: Not applicable
Interests: Musician – play electric bass and guitar; Retro gaming; Open-source projects, Cibersecurity